About Kolhapur, Maharashtra, India

Kolhapur is situated on the bank of the Panchganga River and surrounded by the Sahyadri mountain ranges. It is a city known for its historical forts, temples and royal places of erstwhile kings. One of the best places to explore the splendor and heritage magnificence of India. Situated at an altitude of 1800 feet above the sea level, Kolhapur enjoys a pleasant climate for the major part of the year. The best time to visit Kolhapur is from September to March.

About 387 kms from Mumbai, the financial capital of India famous for the traditional handcrafted leather slippers, the Kolhapuri chappals and its unique local jewelry, a special type of necklace called Kolhapuri Saaj.

The Bhonsle dynasty was the ruling family of Kolhapur Princely State and they pride themselves for being the descendants of Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj the Great. King Chhatrapati Shahaji II was the last ruler of the State of Kolhapur. Down the years the rulers of Kolhapur promoted theatre, wrestling and other crafts. Today, Kolhapur is a modern and industrialized city.

Kolhapur is famous for the Goddess Mahalakshmi Temple. People from all religious backgrounds live here harmoniously. Hinduism is followed by the majority of residents in Kolhapur and Marathi is the mother tongue of Kolhapuri people. Along with Marathi, Hindi and English languages are commonly spoken. Festivals like Diwali, Ganesh Chaturthi, Navaratri and Holi known as the festival of colors are celebrated with great enthusiasm and the Kolhapuri People are hospitable and welcoming.

Holiday makers and travel enthusiasts living in Maharashtra or near Kolhapur district make a one day trip or a weekend trip for camping and trekking, apart from that, tourists from all over India and abroad make a week-long trip to explore this magnificent city and have a fun-filled, enriching and joyful experience. Kolhapur is the culinary capital of Western India.
