NATIONAL CONFERENCE SUMMARY

CSIBER-organized national conference on the theme of "India in the New World Order" kicked off today with fresh perspectives on the theme from local, national, and global perspectives. The conversation was solely focused on the shifting priorities of the world, specifically India, and was supported by four keynote speakers from Mauritius, Myanmar, Sri Lanka, and Lao.

The conference was officially opened by Mr. Ravi Doli, MD of Mayura Steels Pvt. Ltd. from Kolhapur, who also served as the chief guest. Mr. Doli discussed his family's accomplishment in the engineering sector and the global hurdles they overcame in the last three decades. On this occasion, Prof. Needesh Rampal attended the conference in Kolhapur.

The director general of the University of Technology Mauritius, Dr. Dinesh Kumar Hurreeram, spoke to the audience about the changes in higher education. He voiced worry about the 231 various standards indices and 109 targets that needed to be met. He emphasised that it is a long trip from AI to food security.

The vice chancellor of the University of Vavunia in Sri Lanka, Prof. T. Mangaleswaran, spoke on the topic of online education and its effects on education. With his research, he went into detail about how there were numerous outliers in the process that occurred throughout the online shift and that both good and negative consequences needed to be understood. The old system of education has been replaced with a new one that presents many difficulties.
