As per convention of V.P.culture, various programs were organized in the college during the Annual Programme of Lakshay 2K 22. Students, professors and non-teaching staff enthusiastically participated in all the programs.

On the same day, Marathi Language and Culture Prosperity Conservation Day were celebrated with enthusiasm. The day was celebrated on a large scale by the Cultural Department, Library, the Department of Internal Quality Assurance, the Department of Social Awareness, and the Language Department.

The program started with the lighting of the lamp

Food stalls were set up by the women of the self-help group as part of the social awareness campaign. At this time all the students were given food passes by the college. The stalls were crowded with students, so the food items of the self-help group women were sold and the message of social awareness and unity was conveyed to the students through this event.
